

A New One in Mercy Flights

God's Lake, Man.—Unique in aviation's history in the north was the story of a mercy flight written into the records recently with Pilot Herb Beagrim of Wings Limited the hero.

A woman was lying in hospital at Winnipeg, 250 miles south of here, seriously ill. An operation was imperative, but her physician was unwilling to proceed without the consent of her husband at a small lake north of here.

Details were sent here by wireless but communication with the man was complicated by the fact ice conditions would not permit landing of an airplane on the lake where he was staying.

He dropped a message, asking if the husband wished the operation to be proceeded with, to signal by making a triangle of three limbs on the ice of the lake. The signals were given, Beagrim returned here and the operation in far-off Winnipeg was successfully performed.

Canada's Newly Acquired Reindeer Herd in Good Condition

Ottawa.—Canada's herd of 1,579 Alaska reindeer which Andy Barr drove across the rim of the Arctic to Khatigauk, east of the Mackenzie River, have settled down to domestic life in their new land.

Wireless messages from the north informed the Interior Department today 600 fawns already had been born and more were expected. This indicated the reindeer survived the long trek from Alaska in good condition and meant success for the department's experiment of providing a new source of food and clothing for the Eskimos.

The herd was purchased in December, 1929, and was five years on the road. The reindeer station consists of 6,000 square miles of ground, covered with reindeer moss. It extends inland from the Arctic coast along the east bank of the Mackenzie River. It has winter and summer grazing grounds.

Old Newspaper

Irish Publication Owned in Saskatchewan is Dated 1800

Trux, Sask.—A tribe followed with age, a copy of the "Ulster Gazette," published 135 years ago, is a cherished possession of Mr. Lewis, district farmer, near here. The paper was discovered among possessions of his grandfather during a visit to the old Ontario farmhouse.

The issue, printed at Kingston, County Ulster, is dated Saturday, January 4, 1865, and contains reports of the death of General Washington and addresses by President John Adams eulogizing the statesman. Several columns are devoted to news of the Napoleonic wars. Advertisements are displayed in poetic form.

Canada's Aviation Risks Decrease

Record of Accident Shows One Death Per 928,334 Miles Flown

Ottawa.—Evidence that aviation in Canada is becoming increasingly safe was shown today in figures compiled by the civil aviation branch of the department of national defence on aircraft accidents during the last three years.

The figures showed that in 1934 Canadian aircraft flew 9,497,637 miles and that in 75,571 aircraft hours required to fly those miles 13 persons were killed and nine injured. Among the dead were three passengers, four pilots, three other crew members and two bystanders. Seven pilots and two passengers were hurt.

In 1933 the total number of deaths was 25, including 11 passengers and eight pilots. Thirteen persons were hurt, including five passengers. The aircraft miles flown were 4,538,215, almost 3,000,000 less than in 1934. In 1932 a total of 15 persons were killed and 13 injured while the mileage flown was a little more than 1933.

The 1934 record of fatalities showed one person killed per 928,334 miles flown, compared with one in 453,821 miles in 1933 and one in 571,141 in 1932. One passenger was killed per 9,165,879 miles flown last year, one to 273,153 miles in 1933 and one in 2,623,011 miles the year before.

GOING TOO FAR

A Negro was telling his minister that he had "got religion."

"Dat's fine, brother; but is you sure you is going to lay aside sin?" asked the minister.

"Yessuh. Ah's done it already."

"Ah? Is you gwine to pay up all yob debts?"

"Walk a minute, Pahnson! You hnt talking religion now—you is talkin' business!"

All By Himself

Here is two-year old Willie McManus, who travelled all the way from Glasgow to Canada by himself on the Anchor-Donalson liner Athol.

Willie arrived at Montreal recently none the wiser for his adventure and seeming sorry to say "good-bye" to the Stewards and Stewardesses.

He was photographed here with his little suit-case just before leaving for Toronto where he will visit his aunt and grandmother who reside on Broadway Avenue, Toronto.

The Week In Ottawa

By F. E.

OTTAWA.—The scheme of Ontario producers for regulating marketing in Great Britain and other European countries of beef and dairy cattle is getting somewhere. The Dominion Marketing Board has taken it under consideration. The scheme is at the point where proper action on a local board has been set out. The local board would consist of 12 members, consisting of 10 producers and two representatives of the Ministry of Agriculture.

The local board would be named by the Ministry of Agriculture, and would be responsible for the regulation of the marketing of beef and dairy cattle in the province. The local board would be responsible for the regulation of the marketing of beef and dairy cattle in the province. The local board would be responsible for the regulation of the marketing of beef and dairy cattle in the province.

Ontario cheese-makers have been in the limelight too. They evolved a scheme to regulate marketing of cheese, and the local Marketing Board has been set up. The plan involves establishment of a local board known as the Ontario Cheese Marketing Board, with headquarters in Belleville. With a personnel the board would consist of representatives from each of the principal cheese districts of the province. It is possible the board will consist of R. H. McInerney, E. J. Fyfe, Stirling, George Gardiner, Sealey's Bay, McIntyre, Finch, and F. H. Hammond.

Ontario potato growers are protection. They got together, wrote and formed the Ontario Growers' Association, and elected L. F. Burrows, chairman. Eastern Ontario Potato Marketing Board, that they would have opportunity in the near future to determine whether they are with results obtained by the Ontario.

With an absence of visible monetary activity, official work was somewhat concerned. A speech made before the States Chamber of Commerce Monday, by A. O. Dawson, of real, president of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Dawson is apparently the spokesman of a small group of big business in expressing his displeasure in the report of the Royal Commission on Price Spreads, was speaking to a group of men who definitely opposed to President's New Deal, and therefore accorded a sympathetic hearing to the report for its proposed governmental control of economic activity and expressed disapproval to see how a government could make a better reorganization than all those of every class, who have but through hard work and by trial and error, Canada's competitive business. Canadian business, Dawson pointed, should rise up and prepare a battle against government regulation. Mr. Dawson said anything about the workers in Canada, who have been victimized by what he called the disappearance of old economic and economic laws. Mr. Dawson referred to social shops. In his said address, made on January

"There must be an end to child labor. There must be an end to sweat shop conditions. There must be an end to the reckless exploitation of human resources and the trafficking in the health and happiness of Canada."

Opinion was afterwards expressed by Mr. Cox that during the two-month peeling season this summer several thousand men at least would find employment. Buyers representing $1,000,000 worth of business were present at the conference with the cabinet, said Mr. Cox, and now that the dues have been reduced, these men are expected to file orders immediately.

Living As We Pray

I knelt to pray when day was done, And prayed: "O Lord, bless everyone; Let from each saddened heart the pain,

And let the sick be well again." And then I woke another day And carefully went on my way.

The whole day long I did not try To wipe a tear from any eye; I did not try to share the load, Of any brother on the road;

I did not even go to see The sick man just next door to me. Yet once again, when day was done, I prayed: "O Lord, bless everyone."

Not as I prayed, into my ear There came a voice that whispered clear:

"Pious, hypocrite, before you pray; When have you tried to bless today? God's sweetest blessings always go By hands that serve Him here below."

And then I hid my face and cried, "Forgive me, Lord, for I have lied; And I will live the way I pray." Let me but live another day.

THE KING SPEAKS

London.—The text of the King's address by radio to the Empire on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee celebration follows:

"At the close of this memorable day, I must speak to my people everywhere. Yet how can I express what is in my heart."

"As I passed this morning through cheering multitudes to and from St. Paul's Cathedral, as I thought there of all that these 25 years had brought to me and my country and my Empire, how could I fail to be most deeply moved?"

"Words cannot express my thoughts and feelings. I can only say to you, my very dear people, that the Queen and I thank you from the depth of our hearts for all the loyalty and, may I say, the love with which this day and always you have surrounded us."

"I dedicate myself anew to your service for the years that may still be given to me. I look back on the past with thankfulness to God. My people and I have come through great trials and difficulties together. They are not over. In the midst of these days of rebuilding I strive to do my best for the future of this Empire."

FLOOD OF DINES IN CHAIN LETTERS

Great Stimulus To Mail Business—Clerks Work Late

Denver.—Whether or not the postoffice officials like the situation created by the dime chain letters, they were forced to admit that the fad is a remarkable stimulant for the mail business.

Stamp collections on first class mail Monday totalled 404,550, far beyond the normal first-of-the-week volume, and extra clerks worked far into the night to clear the sorting tables.

By mid-afternoon, the total stamp sales at the postoffice totalled $15,000, which is $6,000 more than the average for Monday.

CARRIERS OVERWHELMED

Postmaster J. O. Steric said it appeared unlikely that carriers in the residential districts would be able to make their customary second rounds because of the volume of mail.

At the same time, Steric indicated postal authorities here had abandoned their plans to arrest those participating in the send-a-dime-chain scheme.

"This does not mean," he added, "that we will not continue to seek out persons who attempt to make a racket out of the fad."

POTATO PRODUCERS FORM ASSOCIATION

Ontario Growers Organize To Protect Their Interests—Price Pegging Backed.

Toronto.—At a meeting of the Ontario division of the Eastern Canada Potato Marketing Board recently, at which 22 representatives of Ontario growers were present, it was decided to form an Ontario Potato Growers' Association to protect the interests of potato producers in the province.

L. F. Burrows, chairman of the Eastern Canada Potato Marketing Board, attended the meeting. J. T. Cassin, head of the Ontario division of the Eastern Canada Potato Marketing Board, was named chairman of the Ontario Potato Growers' Association.

In an interview Mr. Burrows said that growers in the province will be given the right to vote, at a date to be set between July 1 and July 15, to determine whether they are satisfied with results obtained by the board in Ontario since February 1 and also to determine whether they are in favor of the continuation of the board's operations.

Mr. Burrows also stated that the meeting unanimously decided to maintain pegged prices for Ontario potatoes, despite rumors that they would be relinquished.

It was pointed out that the scheme has been of advantage to Ontario potato growers inasmuch as sales of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island potatoes have been sharply curtailed since February 1 and producers in Ontario have received higher revenue for the native product than that which they received before the potato scheme went into effect.

While no definite figure is available, Mr. Burrows stated that Ontario potato producers had been able to add "thousands of dollars" to their revenue as a result of the potato board's efforts.

"The system of grading potatoes, as adopted under the potato scheme, has served to alleviate the surplus problem in the province," Mr. Burrows stated. "Anywhere from 40 to 50 per cent. of available potato supplies at February 1, which ordinarily, would have gone to consumers, has been rated unsuitable for human consumption and has been, and will be, used as feed for livestock. The rest grades up to standard."

"One of the most gratifying results of the potato board scheme has been the sharp increase in the sale of Ontario potatoes in Ontario," Mr. Burrows added.

"It has been estimated that the sale of New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island potatoes has been affected to the extent of 500 and 200 cars, respectively, as a result of efforts of the Ontario board to increase the sale of Ontario potatoes in this province," Mr. Burrows concluded.

MAKING PORCH PILLOWS

Cotton batting is frequently used for porch or summer pillows and the down ones put away for winter use. However, cotton batting can be made almost as soft as down by cutting it into squares, putting them into a baking pan and placing them in a warm oven until thoroughly steamed. Watch carefully to prevent scorching. After the cotton is heated it will be soft and fluffy.

WAR BABIES

It is almost 21 years since the Great War broke out and almost 17 years since it concluded. Yet it comes as something of a shock to read the news that France is now calling its "war babies" to the colors. There has been time for a whole new generation to come to manhood and yet the world is still suffering from the repercussions of the late war and is living in fear of another.

PENALTY FOR SPEEDING

A reader sends us a clipping from an American newspaper reporting an American case tried by the Reigate magistrate. A Boston motorist was charged before them with dangerous driving. He had travelled, it was said, all speeds varying from 25 to 70 miles an hour, he took a dangerous corner at forty miles, it was brought out that in 1928 he was convicted of a similar offence, his driving license suspended for a year. The Reigate court thereupon fined him £100, disqualified him from holding a driving permit for five years.

Friends here will sympathize with Mrs. W. F. Gibson, Robinson Street, Grimsby, in the death of her father, Mr. Samuel McDowell who passed away at his home at Cedar Springs on Saturday, May 11th, in his 82nd year. The funeral was held on Monday from his late residence with interment at Union Cemetery, Pardo-ville. THE TOLL GATE AT HOUSE HILL

About forty years ago this toll gate, the first west of Toronto, spanned the Kingston Road at the east end of the house. The toll of the building stands by the roadside and the is now occupied by a junction highway landmark of today—a gasoline station.

While the toll gate is but a memory of the romantic past, the highway traveller of today continues to pay in time for highway construction and maintenance. In their motor coach travellers pay a full share of these costs.

BRAY CHICK HATCHERY ANNOUNCES LOWER PRICES

At the new low prices for May and June, Bray's early-maturing chicks again offer you one of the best chick values you can get. After the first of May, it costs much less to produce baby chicks than it does earlier in the Spring — so naturally they can be sold for much less.

The Bray chicks you buy in May and June are exactly the same as those you'd have gotten two months ago. They are hatched from eggs drawn from the same breeding flocks. The chicks are graded according to egg size before the eggs go to the incubators. And they are hatched in exactly the same way.

It stands to reason that they will perform in the same way as early hatched chicks — and they have the advantage of warmer weather right at the start. With ordinary good management and feeding, our "Kira-Profile" pullets will begin laying at five months old — and the cockerels will make heavier-than-average market chickens in the Fall.

The new prices apply to all NINE breeds, and to "Sexed" pullets as well. Come into the hatchery and get a copy of our new Price List. We believe you will be pleasantly surprised when you see these reductions.

If you are interested in "sexed" chicks, we have a limited supply of 16-day-old and 3-week-old chicks available. They are nicely started and the prices are reasonable.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Richard Dupper

Friends learned with deep regret of the passing of Mrs. Harriet Dupper at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert Cox, Grantham on Thursday May 9, following a short illness.

Born in England nearly 70 years ago, the deceased lady had been a resident of this country for the past 44 years. For a number of years she had resided in Grimsby.

The funeral was held on Sunday afternoon from the Stonehouse Funeral Home to Queen's Lawn Cemetery for interment, Rev. Harvey Merritt officiating.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. A. Hewson, Henry Farrell, William Bessough, Walter Johnson, James Thiel and W. R. Smith.

Percy Foster

The sudden death of Percy Foster occurred at Jordan on Friday after an illness of only a few hours. Mr. Foster was about his work as usual when he suffered a heart attack, passing away at his home a few hours later. He was in his 44th year. He leaves besides his wife, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foster; one sister, Mrs. Melvin Ryckman, and three brothers, Lorne, Winfred and Arthur, all of Jordan Station. The funeral was held Monday afternoon from his late home, conducted by Rev. C. R. Albright and Rev. Mr. McPhee. Interment in Jordan Station cemetery.

Lucas, a Touss

Lucette Touss, widow of the late Alvin Wardell, died last week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert L. Culp, Lakeside road, Clinton township. Deceased was in her 78th year. The funeral was held on Thursday, May 14th, with interment in Mount Oakes cemetery.

The Young Ladies' Mission Circle of Grimsby Baptist Church met at the home of Rev. Harvey Merritt to honor Miss Sadie Phillips prior to her marriage this month. About twenty-five members were present and an enjoyable evening of games spent. The bride-elect was the recipient of many useful gifts in the nature of a party shower. Two service baskets, refreshments in charge of Mrs. Frank Cooper and Miss Edna Clatworthy concluded the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Yates with their two little sons from Montreal spent the Jubilee holiday with their Grandmother, Mrs. W. L. Stephens. Mrs. Yates was formerly Miss Kathryn McNally. She has many warm friends who will welcome them back to Hamilton where they live to make their home in future after living the last ten years in Montreal.

St. Andrew's A.Y.P.A. are bringing their seasonal activities to a close on Monday, May 27th, when the meeting will be in honor of the mothers.

The members of the Sunday school attended the morning service in Trinity United Church in a body on Sunday last when Rev. E. A. Earchman, the minister, gave an illustrated address. During a baptismal service held Anna Marilyn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Terry and Betty Jane, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Farver, were baptized.

St. Andrew's A.Y.P.A. of Grimsby attended a dance in their honour at the Fifteen Beach on Tuesday night as the guests of St. Andrew's A.Y.P.A. of Beamsville.

On Monday evening next the final meeting of the spring season will be held by the United Church Young People's Society. It will take the form of a banquet tendered by the losers to the winners in an attendance contest which has been carried on for several months. An especially interesting program is being prepared for the occasion.

On Monday evening nearly three score members of the Young People's Society of Trinity United Church motored to Hamilton where they attended the spring rally of the Hamilton Presbytery held in Wesley United Church. The program included the finale in a series of debates held during the past few months, the Olivet Church team defeating a team from Centenary Church. Lloyd Knox of Winona won the trophy in the finale in impromptu public speaking.

It is expected that the courts of Trinity Tennis Club will be ready for play by May 20th. Fees are the same as last year. Singles two dollars, Juniors, $1.00. Membership tickets may be obtained from E. Unwin, Marion Scott or Malda Cullingford, Secretary.

CLINTON TP. ASSESSES ESCAPMENT LAND

The township of Clinton reported that it had assessed the corporation's land on the escapment at about $2,200. These hundred odd acres were described by the town council as "non-accessible, since it was municipally owned, non-revenue producing, the water supply for the village of Beamsville, land set aside for a bird sanctuary and game preserve, and the total acreage was under reforestation."

Relief has been cut in half over the previous month, March until there are now but nine families, forty persons, receiving assistance.

LINCOLN GIRLS ATTENDING JUNIOR CONFERENCE

Fourteen girls of Lincoln county attended the Junior girls' conference at MacDonald Institute, Oshawa, held on May 8, 9 and 10. Those registered were: Jean Culp and Clara Culp, Vineland; Hazel High, Violet Ecker and Margaret Martindale, Jordan; Altha Vaughan, Jordan Station; Amelia Erwin, Queenston; Florence Hope, Virgil; Theda Bagg and Viola Sewell, Grantham; Lorna Nobson, Foxhill; Anne Buchanan and Ruth Matthews, St. Catharines, and Laura Coleman, Niagara-on-the-Lake.

Peter Kohn, 52 Robinson St., North, in Magistrate's court here on Friday was convicted of being in possession of liquor not obtained on his own permit and given the alternative of paying a fine of $111.25 or serving a three-months' jail term. The other three who appeared on similar charges, James Elliott, Harry Bauer and John Jankowki, same address were dismissed.

The recent strong winds have played havoc with the fishing business in the district and resulted in heavy loss in the damage to nets and in some cases loss altogether by the recent strong east winds. In some instances nets were so full of moss and weeds from the lake bottom that it will be impossible to clean them again.

An unusual growth in the form of quinquapet dandelions was brought in to The Independent office by Arnold Lampman. The flower itself included five heads grown together on one stem and was picked up along the Forty Creek.

JUNIOR FARMERS TO ELECT OFFICERS

The officers and executive of the Lincoln County Junior farmers will hold their annual meeting for the election of officers on Wednesday evening, May 13, in the Beamsville council chambers. A trip to the Royal Winter Fair, county conference, and picnic were discussed at the last meeting but the decision was deferred. It was decided to hold the annual moonlight excursion again this year possibly at the end of July or first of August. A committee was appointed to make preliminary arrangements. The Junior fair was also discussed and a strong committee appointed to look after the various classes. A committee was also appointed to re-arrange the prize list for the judging competition.

VETERINARY PASSES

Following a heart failure as he was driving into his home, R.R. 1, Freeman, Wednesday last, Dr. Frederick A. Heslop, well-known veterinary surgeon, died within an hour after reaching the house. He had been out on two calls and was just returning for the mid-day meal when he felt suddenly ill.

Dr. Heslop, who was in his 68th year, was one of the most familiar figures to farmers and townspeople alike.

Among citizens of St. Catharines who were presented with Silver Jubilee Medals on Monday were Hon. J. D. Chaplin, member of the Privy Council and Mrs. J. D. Chaplin, A. E. Coombs, Boy Scouts Association, F. H. Avery, member of the L. A. Lincoln Riding and Judge J. R. Campbell.

THE REMARKABLE ROMANCE OF AN INDUSTRIAL DICTATOR

Velvet and Steel

By
PEARL BELLAIRS

JOAN DENBY of humble origin, is introduced as a social equal of Miss Georgina, the daughter of a millionaire, who forces his attention on her. Lord Edwards proposes to her.

Daphne breathed, and breathed in the sweetness of daphne; she saw Fiers Hannon's face, mocking her and absolutely determined. Those flowers—after what she had said! It was too insulting.

She went to the table, took the card from the box, tore it up and threw the pieces back among the flowers. Smiling faintly, she retired the whole packing. Finding a ten franc piece in her own part of the small salary she had from Georgina, she gave the box to the maid and told her to have it sent down to Mr. Hannon's yacht, the Corvair.

She went in to Miss in Fontaine's room then.

"Georgie," she said, "I want you to let me go back to London today."

"Joan! Why?"

"Please Georgie, let me go on this morning's train! Do let me, after all, you can get home quite comfortably with Smithers to look after you. And I shall be able to have the house in Eton Place all ready for you when you arrive."

"But why this sudden hurry? After all we are only going to stay for another four days."

"I've had a letter from mother—and anyhow, you see, it's awkward for me, staying here with Lord Edwards about."

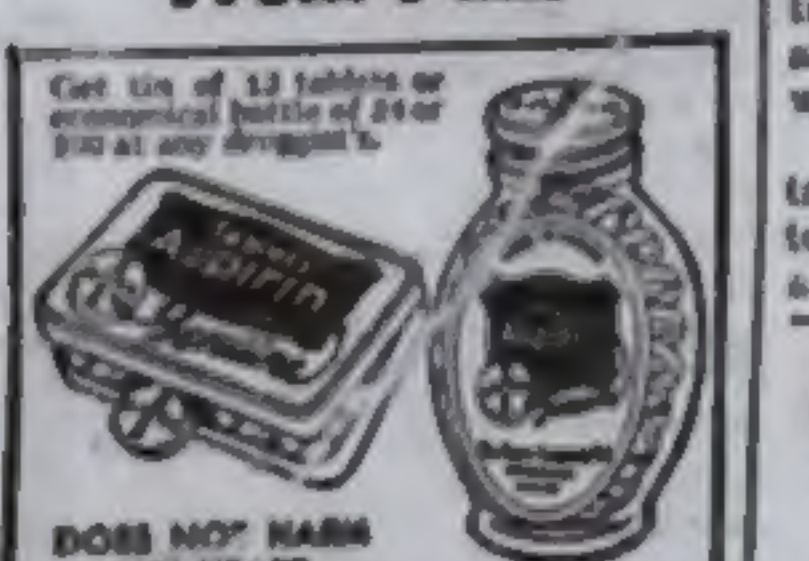

She could not tell Georgina about Fiers Hannon. She knew that her fright about him was unreasonable—but still, there it was. She wanted to get away. Somehow he had rubbed all the gift off his life of innocent shame.

Miss in Fontaine made no further protest, though she was at a loss to know what she would do without Joan to keep her amused.

Joan went back to her room to pack her things, the things that were really hers, those few simple things which she had bought with her own money and had laboured to make in cunning imitation of the beautiful style of the expensive clothes which Georgina gave her. There was still a strong sweetness of daphne in her room, and though she loved the smell of it, she threw open the window, with perverse relentlessness, to drive it out.

Looking out she could see the place, almost empty at such an hour; she leaned further out, gasping a last farewell at the blue expanse of the Mediterranean, and glanced down at the gleaming marble pavement of the terrace below her second floor window.

Not so long since only newspapers recognized the value of novelty. It has taken the depression to make the business man enlist it as his main money-maker. Thus, on the basis of something bizarre in entertainment a recently opened restaurant in New York is meeting with phenomenal success. It is staging its "show" in the ceiling instead of on the floor!

Nightly, beginning at nine o'clock, a daring young girl, on a series of flying trapezes does her stunts fifty-four feet above the heads of the fascinated patrons.

And the reader's anxious enquiry is answered even before it is asked. There is a strong net to catch the flying figure should she miss her grasp. Besides, her turns are done principally over a cleared space high above the centre of the huge room. The restaurant, by the way, has taken its name from this vandevel attraction. The building was formerly a millionaire's stable, hence its height, and the bare brick walls are something of a novelty after so much modernistic art elsewhere.

Another famous restaurant which has succeeded well enough to form a chain attracts the customers who like to see their dinner cook over enormous open fireplaces. The idea of catering before a roaring hearth while the chicken is done to a turn is not only charming, but a welcome change from the secrecy of hotel kitchens.

And there's the beauty parlor that is said to be serving cocktails to its customers while they submit to shampoo and permanent. Of course, no compulsion is practiced on those who don't indulge. Ginger ale is on hand for the toothache!

New York is treated to the sight of a doll's house that is famous on two continents: (1) It belongs to the actress, Colleen Moore, (2) it is valued at $455,000.

Manhattan Island is really being given a preview of this remarkable architectural feature, which is scheduled to tour the world. From the small fee charged to view it, Miss Moore hopes to build up a fund for the support of various crippled children's homes.

The doll's house is really a castle which Colleen has spent more than nine years in furnishing. It is 14 feet high, stands 8 feet square on its base and is set on a precipice. A study in coquetry and perfection, it boasts such possessions as a gold pipe organ, pictures by celebrated artists, the rarest of woods and bronzes on a miniature scale, and diamond-encrusted electric light bulbs no bigger than wheat grains. It is presided over by a fairy princess who dances, sings, and curtsies.

Light of the Riviera. She was sorry to leave it—but still, she did not belong there, she could never be anything but a dependent and a hanger-on, unless she married her way—with some Lord Edwards!

But she was determined not to let her taste of worldly comfort drive her to any sacrifice of that kind!—(To be continued.)

WHAT DOES YOUR HANDWRITING REVEAL?

A very interesting question comes to me in the mail, and because it is of considerable bearing on the possibilities of character reading from handwriting, I am dealing with it in this article.

My correspondent says: "If writing is so characteristic of the individual, why do the schools insist that the pupils imitate a copybook pattern?"

I myself was an excellent copybook writer, but as soon as I was not forced to write in that way, I stopped and wrote in any old way. I must add that most of my friends who were also excellent copybook stylists at school, now write no better than I do."

It will be obvious that educational authorities cannot take every angle of things into their consideration. Their task in regard to writing, is to teach the rudiments of it, and for this reason, they have to adopt a standard style. It is manifestly impracticable to attempt to teach hundreds of pupils to take but a single school, and yet allow them all to use their own systems.

It is the same with teaching people to write as it is in all other branches of learning. We must go from the simple to the complex.

The real essence of this question, however, lies in the question of the correspondence. It admits that in spite of being an excellent copybook writer, once she was away from the arbitrary influence of that system, she reverted, probably gradually, to an individual style of writing. In other words, she gradually began to express her own individuality and character. This confession goes to the very heart of the value of Graphology.

Geoffrey St. Clair
Graphologist

Graphologists maintain, and prove the truth of their claims by the accurate character delineations they make, that handwriting is the hallmark of the individual's character; that people write in a certain way because their characters and natures are of a certain type, and they possess certain definite characteristics.

In spite of various systems and styles of writing, we all ultimately express our own individual style and in doing so, present a picture of our characters. It is because of this that a character reading of yourself from your handwriting can be so definitely helpful to you.

Would YOU like to have YOUR character analyzed from YOUR handwriting? This well-known Graphologist can help you as he has helped so many others. And he may be able to help you to know your friends better. Send specimens of the handwriting you wish to be analyzed, stating birthdate in code form. Send the coin for each specimen, and receive with 24 stamped addressed envelopes. (to: Geoffrey St. Clair, Room 411, 75 Adelaide St. W., Toronto, Ont. BEAUTIFY YOUR HOME AND SURROUNDINGS

The season approaches when every home-owner in Simcoe and the surrounding villages of Norfolk County should be giving thought to the beautification of his premises and thus to the improvement in appearance of his community. While horticultural work has enjoyed a tremendous boom in Norfolk in the last few years, there remains plenty of room for further development. Every unimproved or unplanted home can be made more attractive by the judicious use of trees, shrubs, flowers and well-kept grass. The old saying that a home is not a home until it is planted very well emphasizes the necessity and wisdom of planting.

Further, the progressiveness and thrift of a community or a municipality are often reflected in its appearance and the best advertising that any community can do is to present a pleasing, inviting appearance to the world—an appearance of prosperity and industry, reflected by well-planted and well-kept public and private grounds.

We are influenced to a greater extent than we realize by our surroundings. Children are particularly sensitive in this regard. Surely a home in and around which flowers are grown is a better place to bring up children than a home where no attention whatever is paid to those friends of the plant kingdom. As the twig is bent the tree is inclined, in an old saying and very applicable in connection with the training of children. If children are taught to love flowers and to become familiar with them, their hearts will be filled with love for these things which leave less room in their hearts and minds for the things that hurt and destroy.

The objection is frequently heard that gardens and flowers cost too much or that they take too much time. The truth is that it is not so much a matter of money or time as it is of desire and disposition. If we are disposed to have gardens and flowers and really desire to have attractive home surroundings, we will have them no matter how busy we may be. Information as to suitable varieties for planting may be obtained from your local Horticultural Society or from the United Agricultural College. The cost in any event will be only trifling and the amount spent on the nursery stock necessary to improve the average home will be found one of the best investments that can be made. It will pay great dividends in satisfaction and will increase the value of your home.

Your individual efforts in making your home more attractive will improve your street and thus have a part in beautifying your community. Incidentally you will have helped to make a more beautiful Canada.—The Norfolk Observer.

Who Said It First?

Various explanations of the origin of the phrase "by hook or crook" have been urged; but the simplest, and probably the best, is that formerly poor people were allowed to collect firewood in the woods of a neighbouring manor, both for personal use and for sale, and they often carried a hook or a crook with which to bring down withered and rotten boughs.

A much more far-fetched explanation is that the phrase implies "foolishly, like a thief," or "righteously, like a bishop." The hook being the instrument used by footpads to lay hold of unwary travellers, and the crook being the bishop's crozier. It has even been claimed, since the phrase is found in use by Thomas Rhymer, a writer of the time, that it was the Great Fire of London, in 1666, which originated the phrase, and that Hook and Crook (or Crook) were a firm of lawyers, famed as assessors and valuers, who did much legal work arising therefrom.

Thank Your Dentist

The hardy cave dweller of old never had modern delicacies like cake, creamed chicken and ice cream. He gnawed his meat off the bone and ate unadorned grain—and, according to some modern dentists, because of that he had healthy teeth.

However, Dr. E. R. Renshaw, professor of Anthropology at Denver University, has been looking at the skulls of ancient cave dwellers in Spain, Verde National Park, and he finds evidence to the contrary. Some cave-dwellers, who lived on coarse, tough foods all their life, had cavities in plenty, suffered from toothache just as we do, and also had pyorrhea.

And one must shoulder patiently to think of having toothache in a land where the only possible remedy was to summon a neighbor and have him knock the decayed tooth out of your head with a pointed stone!

NEWS OF THE SURROUNDING DISTRICT

THIRTY MOUNTAIN

Mrs. Leighton and Son of Pointville, Pa., spent last week visiting her sister, Mrs. Wm. Carson.

The many friends of Mrs. Vivian, will be sorry to hear she returned to the Hamilton hospital and will wish her a speedy recovery.

Miss Weiland of St. Catharines, student of Normal School, taught a week here under the supervision of Mrs. Miller.

Mrs. Egbert Hurst is spending the holiday at Niagara-on-the-Lake with Mrs. E. Riggs.

Their friends will be sorry to learn Mrs. W. Groff and Mrs. Beadle are on the sick list and will wish them a speedy recovery.

The annual meeting of the Home and School Club took place on Thursday night. Election of officers resulted as follows: master of ceremonies, Mr. Egbert Hurst; president, Mr. John Williams; vice-president, Mr. Joe Sobey; secretary, Miss Pearl Prossy; treasurer, Mrs. Harold Ashton. Directors: Mrs. Egbert Hurst, Mr. John Kemp and Mr. Frank English.

There is to be a picnic the second Saturday in June, the place to be decided by new officers. A splendid programme was put on by Miss Rhinshaw and some friends from Bradford, Mr. Jenkins, of Beamsville and others which was enjoyed by all after which lunch was served and a splendid evening enjoyed by all.

BEAMSVILLE

Delton Spotted, R.R. 1, Beamsville, was unfortunate in having no operator's license when picked up on highway 8 by Traffic Officer Duff Haffman. In last week's county police court, he paid the penalty of forfeiture, a fine of $10 and costs totaling $11.00.

At the regular meeting of the Lema chapter of the I.O.D.E., Warden R. Osborne and County Clerk Cammy Winner presented the idea of a demonstration "chest clinic" to be held in the Community hall here some time this month. The actual work will be done by Dr. C. G. Shaver of the Peninsula sanatorium and will be under the control of the medical officers of health of Clinton township and Beamsville.

Alice Ramsey, wife of Alex. Macmillan, died Thursday, May 2, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Melvin Coverdale, Clinton township, after a lingering illness. Deceased was a former resident of Burlington, but had resided here for the past few years. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Walter Vollick of Detroit and Mrs. Melvin Coverdale of Beamsville; one son, George Macmillan of Hamilton; a sister, Mrs. F. DeMars of Burlington, and one brother, George Ramsey of Crossville, Ont.

The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, May 4, from her residence here at 3 o'clock, with interment in Mount Osborne cemetery, Beamsville. Rev. C. D. Draper officiated.

The dime goodwill chain letter struck Beamsville last week. Although many were skeptical at first, they all agreed that it was a very ingenious idea.

Little seven-year-old Betty Franklin was struck across the forehead by the board of a swing on the public school grounds last week. Dr. Stalwood gave the child medical attention, putting in five stitches to close the cut.

Two deputations, one from the Bowling club, represented by President Frank Sutherland, and the other from the county council, represented by Warden Osborne and Clerk Cusby Winner, appeared before the monthly meeting of the Lema chapter, I.O.D.E., last week. The former made a suggestion that a lawn bowling club be formed by the members of the I.O.D.E.; the county representatives asked the co-operation of the order for a chest clinic to be held in various sections of the county at an early date.

WINONA

Winona is observing the same day-light saving time schedule as Hamilton, starting on May 4 and reverting to standard time on September 15.

Although none of the summer cottagers have moved out from the city yet, many of them have been busy getting their premises painted and grounds fixed up.

Fitting mention was made in the local churches Sunday of the King's jubilee and a community jubilee service was held in St. John's church on May 12 at 7.15 p. m., standard time, to which the Cub pack, Girl Guides, school board, local council, the Legion and "C" company Wentworth Regiment, were in attendance. The service was assisted by Rev. I. M. Meyer, of Winona, and Rev. C. Flock, of Jordan, preached. The morning service for the same day was an anniversary service for the Women's Auxiliary, founded 25 years ago, followed by a jubilee tea in the armchairs on Tuesday, May 14, from 3 to 6 o'clock.

The closing banquet of St. John's A.Y.F.A. was held in the armchairs. The guest speaker was Rev. Henderson, of St. Mark's church, Hamilton, who spoke on Our Reforming System and What It Is Trying To Do. Miss M. Cartwright, of Hamilton, sang a pleasing solo. The young people of the Good Shepherd Mission, Bart's street, and representatives of the local council of the A. Y. F. A. were guests.

JORDAN

The regular meetings of the Y.P.L. were brought to a close for the summer months last week. The annual election of officers took place, conducted by Rev. C. R. Albright, and resulted as follows: Honorary president, Rev. C. R. Albright; president, Helen Troup; first vice-president, Violet Culp; Christiana fellowship convener, Wesley Nunnemaker; missionary convener, Helen Rehl; literary convener, Margaret Fox; citizenship convener, Miss Troup; social convener, Laura Hensberger; and Elston Hensberger; secretary, Dorothy Troup; treasurer, Norman Nesbit; pianist, Clara High.

About 60 children gathered at the United Sunday school room recently for a birthday dinner, which was held under the auspices of the Mission board. After dinner, a good program of games was enjoyed.

COAST TRIP WAS SUCCESS

Miss Rhon Muir in Good Wm Highway Tour - Visits Hot Springs And Other Points.

Miss Rhon M. Muir, Canadian Representative of the Broadway of America Highway writing from Fort Worth, Texas has furnished the independent with the following review of her trip to Hot Springs, Ark. and other points which will be read with interest:

I have been so very busy that it has not been possible to have this reach you before this.

The population of Hot Springs is approximately 30,000 with a visiting population of over 300,000 annually. It has 211 hotels, not including Apartment hotel or tourist camps.

Hot Springs, Ark. "National Park" has 47 springs which for the past 103 years have been furnishing to the citizens of the nation the possible relief from their ailments.

To-day in the park there exist 21 bath houses, beautifully located along the Magnolia Boulevard of trees. The bath houses are furnished with modern equipment. "The waters delivered to the bath houses are collected in a central impounding basin at a natural temperature of 143 degrees Fahrenheit. Approximately one million gallons a day are secured from the normal flow of the springs.

The tub treatment is the standard method for usual disabilities and ailments and ordinary cases of arthritis, rheumatism and other troubles that are easily handled in the tubs. The newest and most specialized type of treatment is the modern Physiotherapy, and it is that type of treatment which President Roosevelt utilized to gradually bring himself back to physical usefulness and which is now receiving nation wide attention. The new hospital, Army and Navy, is equipped with 112 beds and can be doubled over night with cots.

Hot Springs can well boast of its golf courses as it has three 18 hole courses — two equipped with grass greens.

Hot Springs Chamber of Commerce owns and operates KTHS 10,000 watt station, also an Air port.

I was welcomed by Miss Alra Smith, of the Publicity Dept. of the Chamber of Commerce and was the guest of Mr. Chester, the Manager of the Arlington Hotel (Mr. Chester was born in Trent, Ont.) also the guest of President Robert A. Jones, of the Broadway of America Highway.

Miss Smith was my constant escort while I stopped in Hot Springs and arranged for a fifteen minute talk of Canada, Ontario, Hamilton and Niagara Peninsula, at things the American tourist would be most interested in if planning to visit Canada.

Over KTHS Radio Station and of my trip to that point over the Broadway of America Highway — the All Paved — All Weather — Coast to Coast Highway — Miss Smith also arranged with Mr. Jimmie Stever, Manager of the Air port for a thirty five minute trip in the air viewing Hot Springs which is a trip on one should miss if visiting this wonderful National Park. It is the only way one can appreciate the 400 mile shore line, the beautiful trees and bird life.

Year round fishing is possible in Hot Springs. It also has a beautiful country club — noted for its wonderful golf course. The lowest level is 600 to 800 ft. above sea level and the highest point 1400 ft. above the sea level.

We also visited the wonderful race track. I assure you my visit at Hot Springs will be one I will long remember, and feel you will express yourself the same if you visit Hot Springs.

I left Miss Smith at 4.30 p.m. and as I was two days behind my schedule drove all night and arrived in Fort Worth about 6.30 a.m. Having lived two and a half years here I was welcomed by many of my old friends and spent the day viewing the many new buildings along the New and Beautiful Park. After a real night's rest I left for dinner at Abilene, where I was the guest of Mr. Outland, the Manager of the Wooten Hotel, also the Chamber of Commerce. About 2 p. m. I was again on my way and stopped for the night at Midland, Texas. Here I was the guest of Mr. Schfield, Manager of Scharbauer Hotel, had a very interesting visit with Mrs. Sally Covington, Sec'y of Midland Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Covington is well versed in what the tourist means to the West, believe me, as are all Hotel men and Garage and filling station people, as people from Texas west think little of starting on a 600 or 700 mile trip for one day. The roads here make it possible to do just that with ease.

I found many hotels turning guests away at 6.30 in the evening as they were filled, the hotels having from 75 to 250 rooms. Several hotel men advised me they had a better year than 1929. SO MUCH FOR PUBLICITY. They sure did it right here. And it is not for Ripley "they have the business."

I left Midland about 5.30 a.m. stopping with my good friends Mr. and Mrs. Joe Province, Manager of the El Capitlan Hotel, Van Horn Texas. My next stop was as dinner guest of Jack Cheney, Manager of the Paso Del Norte Hotel, also accompanied by Mr. Perry of the Chamber of Commerce, and Miss Emma Gilder, who I met on my prior trip 1929-30. Leaving El Paso about 2.30 night stop was the Hidalgo Hotel, Lordsburg New Mexico. There I was the Guest of Willard E. Holt, Sec'y Chamber of Commerce and Mr. Ned Gannon, manager of the Hidalgo.

This being Saturday night I enjoyed a good rest and Sunday attended the Methodist church with Mr. Holt, and after noon the time was spent in a most interesting way. "We", Col. Holt and his friends, drove to the Transient camp. This is a camp supplied to take care of all transient unemployed. They work six hours daily and the rest of the time is spent panning for gold and they are entitled to all the clear which is often as much as three dollars in spare hours of each day. One man took $100.00 in three days. Of course this is not a daily occurrence.

We next visited the C.C.C. Camp where the boys are paid $30.00 per month for their services, but only $5.00 is given to them, and $25.00 to the parents. They are under Army training and supervision. Their camp is beautifully situated, and grounds well kept.

Lordsburg is noted for its sunshine. This is all too true, which I learned on my return to the hotel from the numbers I received on the trip.

Col. Holt is the most popular man of the west because of his wonderful collection of celebrities who are really his friends. His gallery is full of photos, most of which he has really he has taken personally. He boasts of his sweethearts as only 457, each one numbered but told me my number was 224 and that I was the only Canadian sweetheart on his list.

I left Lordsburg early Monday morning for El Paso where I was on radio station KSUN for another fifteen minute talk of Canada, and the Broadway. I was dinner guest of the city officials at the Copper Queen Hotel. El Paso is the most unique city on the Broadway of America and is noted for its copper mines. Soon after lunch I left for Douglas, Ariz. where I was the guest of F. O. Mackay, the Past President of the Broadway of America who has had this office for a three year period. Mr. Mackay is also owner of the Beautiful Golden Hotel, where Buffalo steaks are served daily the year round.

I was entertained to an interesting dinner at Tombstone Birdcage Theatre, Tombstone, Ariz. This dinner was tendered me by Mr. A. H. Gardner, Western Regional, Vice President of the Broadway. I have much to thank Mr. Gardner for as he was the man who sponsored my trip over the Broadway, "and left out nothing." I assure you.

Mr. Gardner and the dinner guests presented me with a copy of the Tombstone written by Walter Burns. Several of the persons mentioned in this book were guests at this dinner. I visited the world's largest rose bush — It had its beautiful roses on — billions of white interesting sights for the tourist.

My next stop was at the Pecos Hotel, the guest of Mr. Proctor, the manager and dinner guest of Mr. Anderson of the Chamber of Commerce. Night stop was at Phoenix, the Capital City of the state, noted for the beautiful oranges of Orange Blossoms. It is indeed an interesting sight to see blossoms, given fruit and ripe fruit all on the same tree at the same time.

While here I was the guest of Mr. Schuller, manager of the Adams Hotel, and had an interesting talk with Mr. McGovern of the Phoenix Chamber of Commerce.

Leaving Phoenix early the following morning I had lunch at Vi Ki Inn, Coolidge, Ariz. and crossed the border at Yuma where one receives a permit to enter the state of California. Similar to crossing at Niagara Falls, Ontario to Niagara Falls, N. Y. My night stop was at the famous Barhara World Hotel, El Centro. There I was guest of Mr. Miller and Mr. Leo Hetzel, first Vice President of the Broadway of America. "This, the Imperial Valley, is beautiful."

My drive to San Diego from El Centro was not so enjoyable as there was quite a heavy fog and it was raining continually, though the road is beautiful — winding and a continual easy climb. I arrived at San Diego at nine thirty, April 4th, where I was the guest of the Stanford Hotel owned by Zack Zeller, Director of the Broadway highway association.

The entire trip to the coast was indeed successful and I was interviewed by the press at every city or town of any size, the entire length of the "B of A" highway so Ontario and the Niagara Peninsula certainly received a great deal of valuable publicity, that I can verify.

I will later give you the story of my return to the Broadway of America Convention at Nashville, Tenn. as I left San Diego Cal. 7.30 a.m., April 5th with the Motorcade.

I have had a real trip and covered 8,335 miles in 32 days of travel.

Rhon M. Muir,

Canadian Rep. of the B. of A. also officially adopted the "Sweetheart of the Broadway of America Highway".

CANADIAN-AMERICAN

WARM SAFE RELIABLE

Drivers for the Canadian-American line have built up an enviable reputation for skill . . . courtesy . . . reliability.
 That's why most people prefer to travel via Canadian-American, otherwise known as the Bulldog Line . . . operating between Detroit and Buffalo and with connecting carriers all over the United States and Canada.
 Ask your local agent about the large roomy English coaches used by this line. They're over so cozy . . . even on the coldest days.

FORMER RESIDENT

IS CRITICAL

 ing you are working hard. You are kept in ignorance of all this while you wonder why you are unable to advance. I was raised and schooled in Grimsby. I am afraid of nobody and while I live and carry on I am determined to give the solid facts.

Growers and Farmers

The fruit and vegetable industry is a great factor in Canada but as sure as daylight comes in the morning its existence is short lived unless the people who are responsible for the downfall of the fruit grower and farmer, people who have made a mess of governing the affairs of Canada, quickly grasp its real importance.
 Let me suggest that after years of hard work and experience, I think the people at Ottawa ought to take the evening off and look up the Good Book, The Bible. To be sure you will find these words "When I was a child, I acted as a child, but when I became a man, I threw away things."

It looks like lots of insanity down at Ottawa. Let a poor man who did a short time ago. Any fool knows, at least those of high intelligence, speak out and say, "Whiskey is a curse to any country. It causes dissemination and separateness in families.
 It is instrumental in killing people on our highways." You will agree to that unless you are born stubborn.
 To be sure liquor is where Canada should obtain revenue. Yet our representatives sent to govern the affairs of our country, just look what they took off liquor. They left it on the sugar. Sugar so essential to all.

 However no use talking but I pride myself I am 100 per cent right and feel assured I will be obliged to cease busting my head up against a stone wall. For this I do know unless right away quick Ottawa falls to put on embargo on each and every commodity of fruit and vegetables as they come along, unless they fail to establish an embargo at least two weeks before different varieties of fruits and vegetables appear on the market and although I have been a strong Conservative (but not a slither one) I hereby state the willing will be plainly seen on the wall and in the coming election they will not only go down to defeat but it will be the biggest, the greatest, most gigantic landslide ever known since the beginning of the Dominion of Canada.

The writer was schooled and raised in Grimsby, Ontario, in the south of Forest, Ontario, in the great farming country of Lambton County. In my youth I still remember my good horse, Pride of Grimsby, my two prize cows, one a fine brindle color, the other a real genuine good black, splendid in appearance, a best black cow in Grimsby and strive to say it always gave white milk.

The Surrounding District

BEANSVILLE

A tour of inspection of the Beans-ville Vocational school was undertaken on Tuesday by George V. Brooks, director of education for the Island of Tasmania. He was brought by Inspector Davies.

Twenty-one members of the Boy Scout troop left for Toronto Saturday morning to participate in the huge rally in honour of Lord Baden-Powell.
 Transportation was furnished by Rev.
 E. F. Maunsell, Rev. C. D. Draper, &
 J. Wilson and F. Sutherland.

The council in regular session last week heard with some satisfaction that relief costs were down about one-half from the month of March.
 Court of revision was set for the next meeting, to begin at half-past seven instead of eight o'clock. Up to last night the clerk reported only four appeals had been put in his hands.
 The council decided to enter an appeal on their quarry assessment from the township of Clinton.

Councillor Huntman was of the opinion that the headstones of the Beam family removed when the old Baptist graveyard was undergoing renovation should be set back in their places. Reeve Osborne and other council members concurred, but would go a step further and build a small cairn on which would be placed a plate in memory of Beamsville's founder. The matter is under consideration. The council arranged to go to Toronto on Friday in reference to relief matters with Hon. Mr. Croll. It was also understood that the department of municipal affairs would be called on while the council was at the parliament buildings in reference to an audit of tax and waterworks accounts. Clerk Reid reported that around 125 had been turned in since the council had authorized the sending out of some 400 notices to ratepayers requesting those who had complaints or any errors or omissions in their recepts to file them. Reeve Osborne said he would call a special session to deal with those already on file.

Mrs. Lucretia House, widow of the late Alvin Wardell, of Clinton township, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Culp, May 13th.
 She was in her 90th year. One sister, Mrs. Fox, of Beamsville, and a brother,
 Sylvester, of Hamilton, survive.
 The funeral is on Wednesday from her daughter's home on the lake shore road to Mount Osborne cemetery.

A well-attended meeting of the representatives of junior softball clubs was held in the town hall last night

 Beamsville and Upper and Lower Thirty.

 who was the speaker.

The women's auxiliary of St. John's church held a special anniversary service on Sunday in the church it being 25 years since the organization began.
 This was followed by jubilee tea in the armchairs on Tuesday, from 2 to 6 p.m.

A Mother's day service was held in Fifty United church on Sunday morning, with a special mothers' choir.

Three citizens of Winona were honoured in receiving the King's Jubilee medal: Lieut.-Col. A. A. Smith, M.C., E.D., of the West-arth regiment; Lieut.-Col. F. I. Carr-ster, V.D., of the third M. O. Battalion, and C.E.M. A. A.
 Swick, of company, Westworth regiment. At least one former Winona boy, J. J. Baskley, now living in Hamilton, also received it.

An open meeting of the W.M.S. of Fifty and Fruitland United churches was held last week in Fruitland Sunday school, when Miss Mayowna, of St. Peter's mission, Hamilton, native of Czechoslovakia, but now a naturalized Canadian gave an interesting address on the Life of the Women of Central European Countries. Miss Mayowna was dressed in native costume, consisting of 25 yards of fine wool and linen, hand-woven, which usually lasted the wearer for about 40 years. Miss Mayowna's work in Hamilton is among the people from Central Europe who depend on her to act as interpreter and friend in many cases, legal and otherwise. Mrs. Patter presided at the meeting.
